

Spencer County, Kentucky
Ordinance No. 15
Fiscal Year 2004 Series

An Ordinance Prohibiting Electioneering Within a Distance of Three Hundred (300) Feet of the Main Entrance to a Building Used by Voters in Which a Voting Machine is Located Provided that Nothing in this Section Shall Prohibit Electioneering Within a Private Residence or Business Establishment Other Than That in Which the Polling Places is Located by Persons Having an Ownership or Leased Interest in Such Property.

Whereas, the Fiscal Court of Spencer County, Kentucky has a compelling interest in protecting the right of every citizen voter to vote freely for the candidates of their choice, and

Whereas, the Fiscal Court of Spencer County has a compelling interest in protecting the integrity and reliability of elections, and

Whereas, the Commonwealth of Kentucky has no existing valid prohibition of electioneering, and

Whereas, a widespread and time-tested concensus demonstrates that some restricted zone is necessary in order to serve the County's compelling interests in preventing voter intimidation and election fraud.

Now Therefore, Be It Ordained by the Fiscal Court of Spencer County, Kentucky, that:

Section 1. A new Section of the Code of Ordinances be and hereby is created to read as follows:

- (1) To fulfill the government's obligation to protect the voter and the integrity of the election process from actual or attempted fraud, from obstruction, from intimidation real or inferred, from attempted or actual vote buying, from invasion of privacy, from harassment real, threatened or implied, from hindrance or delay all done under the disguise of electioneering, a electioneering free zone is established within three hundred (300) feet of the entrance to any building containing a polling place on any Election Day. No person shall, on the day of any election as established in KRS 118.025, do any electioneering at the polling place or within a distance of three hundred (300) feet of the main entrance of a building used by voters in which a voting machine is located on Election Day. No person shall, on the day of any election as established in KRS 118.025 intentionally invade the right of privacy of any person on his or her way to vote, or cause interference, harassment, or alarm to any person on his or her way to vote. No person shall loiter or congregate in, or hinder or delay a voter, or solicit, or attempt to influence any voter in casting his vote within this 300 feet campaign free zone. Electioneering shall include the displaying of signs, the distribution of campaign literature, cards, or handbills, the soliciting of signatures to any petition, or the solicitation of votes for or against any political party, candidate or question on the ballot in any manner. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit electioneering conducted within the interior of a private residence or business establishment by persons having a leased or ownership interest in such property, within the campaign free zone, provided that all electioneering activities are confined to the interior of the buildings and cannot be heard or observed by any voters going to the polling place. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the displaying of political signs on private property or private establishment by a person having a leased or ownership interest in that private property or private establishment within the campaign free zone, regardless of the distance from the polling place provided that the sign is not accompanied by a person and does not emit any sound and is not audio-visual or mechanical and no larger than four (4) square feet in size.

- (2) Any precinct election officer, county clerk, deputy county clerk, or any law enforcement official may enforce this Ordinance at the polls within three hundred (300) feet of the main entrance to the building used by voters in which the voting machine is located. Assistance may be requested of any law enforcement officer.
- (3) Any property used for a polling location on Election Day shall not be considered a public place in any manner for public discourse. The grounds, buildings, sidewalks, and parking lots at all polling locations are designated non-public forums for the Election Day.
- (4) Violators of any provision of this ordinance shall be guilty of a Class A Misdemeanor under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and shall be fined up to One Thousand dollars ($1,000) and/or up to one year in jail per violation.

Section 2. This Ordinance shall become effective upon its passage.

Pursuant to KRS 67.078, this Ordinance was given first and second reading at a specially-called emergency Fiscal Court meeting on May 14, 2004.

Attest:

Judy Puckett, Spencer County Fiscal Court Clerk
